PREFACE.

THIS work was commenced for my own gratification and pleasure, and without a thought of publication; but I have been induced to have a few copies privately printed at the request of others of the family who have manifested an interest in it, and who, like myself, feel a reverence for ancestral connections. In regard to the ancestry of Samuel Allen in the old world we know but little, except that he and his two brothers, Matthew and Thomas, came from Braintree, Essex County, England, in 1632. It is to be hoped that future researches will throw light upon this point.

The system of arrangement adopted is that used in the "New-England Historical and Genealogical Register." Suppose we wish to find the record of Capt. Noah Allen. The first thing to be done is to look in the Index under that name. We there find that Capt. Noah Allen appears on page 13. Turning to that page we see his name and his record, his pedigree being put down thus:—19. Capt. NOAH[5] (Joseph,[4] Samuel,[3] John,[2] Samuel[1]), b. in East Windsor, &c. This shows at a glance the pedigree of Capt. Noah Allen. He is the fifth generation from Samuel Allen the emigrant. He is the son of Joseph, the grandson of Samuel, the great-grandson of John, and the great-great-grandson of Samuel the emigrant. Now if we wish to find the birth and parentage of Capt. Noah Allen's father, we turn back to No. 19, which we find in small figures at the left hand, near the middle of page 9, and at the head of this family we find 8. JOSEPH,[4] his father, whose birth and parentage are found in the same way. Proceeding in this manner we arrive finally at his great-great-grandfather, Samuel,[1] the original emigrant.

The following abbreviations, in addition to the usual ones of the names of States and of the months, have been used :—b. born ; m. married ; d. died ; unm. unmarried ; dau. daughter ; bapt. baptized.

Grateful acknowledgments are due for valuable and important contributions from Mrs. Maria C. Mitchell, New Haven, Conn. ; Orlando Allen, Esq., Jabez S. Allen, Esq., Henry W. Allen, Esq., East Windsor, Conn. ; B. Rowland Allen, Esq., Hartford, Conn., and to those other members of the family and others who have so kindly assisted me in collecting information. Without these collateral aids, the work could never have been brought to its present degree of fulness and completeness.

The compiler wishes it distinctly understood that he does not regard this book as containing a complete genealogy of the descendants of Samuel Allen, Senior, and he has no doubt that it contains many errors. He desires that these imperfections may be removed. He requests that any one examining this book who detects any error, however trivial, or notices any omission which he can supply, to communicate the information to him without delay, because that which is deferred is apt to be neglected until it is forgotten. Any information thus communicated will not be lost, as the compiler hopes to publish a new and enlarged edition.

SAMUEL ALLEN AND HIS DESCENDANTS.

SAMUEL[1] ALLEN came from Braintree, Essex County, England. He was born about the year 1588, in the reign of Queen Elizabeth. He came to Cambridge, Mass., in 1632; was brother of Col. Matthew Allyn, of Cambridge, Mass., afterwards of Windsor and Hartford, Ct., and Dea. Thomas Allyn, of Middletown, Ct. He removed to Connecticut in 1635, and settled in Windsor. He was a juryman March 5, 1644, and was by occupation a farmer. From the Windsor, Ct., land records we have the following:

"January 27, 1640, Samuel Allen hath granted from the Plantation at Windsor, Ct. 1st. An house lott being six acres, three roods, ten poles, bounded from the rivulet [Farmington River] to the West, by Rodger Ludlow on the South; by Thomas Marshall on the North; and run in length to the West into a highway laid out unto some part of the lot of the said Rodger Ludlow and him the said Samuel Allen. 2nd. In Plymouth meadow Four acres, bounded by Bray Rossiter on the North; and a rivulet that runs into the great [Connecticut] River on the South. 3d. Toward Hartford Nineteen acres more or less and runs in length to the Great River to the West one hundred and thirty and four rods and is bounded by John Witchfield on the North, and by Thomas Marshfield on the South. 4th. Over the Great River next to the same fifteen rods in breadth, in the length to the East three miles; bounded by Joseph Lummus on the South; John Hurd on the North."

The fourth division was undoubtedly within the present limits of South Windsor. Samuel Allen was a man of public spirit, and was honored by his fellow citizens with positions of trust. He died at Windsor, Ct., and was buried April 28, 1648, aged 60 years, leaving a widow and six children. His widow, Ann Allen, removed to Northampton, Mass., where she m. second, William Hurlbut. Ann (Allen) Hurlbut died Northampton, Mass., Nov. 13, 1687.

Windsor, 8th September, 1648.

The following autobiography of John Allen is furnished through the kindness of Solomon Allen, Esq., of Enfield, Ct.:

"I was born in Northampton, Mass., September 30, 1670. After a while my father went to live at Deerfield, where he continued till the town broke up, and at Lathrop's fight my father was slain. My mother was left a widow with three small children, myself the oldest of them, and not above five years old. She was left in a low state, for she had lost the greater part of what she had. I have taken an account of the most remarkable fits of sickness that I have been visited with in all my life time. My mother tells me of one very sore fit of sickness of malignant fever when I was about three years old, when she did not expect my life for three weeks together. I was very bad. Another fit of the chicken pox when I was about eight years old; another form of sickness when I was about twelve or thirteen years old, with a pain in my side. I had the measles when I was about seventeen or eighteen years old; another fit of sore sickness when I was about nineteen years old. In the years when the great fever was about, I had a long and lingering sickness, twenty two and three years old. I had the [illegible] a long sore weak time in the year 1696. I had a fit of sickness at Wethersfield when I was about twenty-six years old, and so continued weakly sometime. Mr. Mix at Wethersfield admitted me 4 o'clock into the church August 2d day, 1696, sacrament day. JOHN ALLEN."

The following extract from a letter was written by Amzi Allen, son of the above, July, 1854.

"My father, Joseph Allen,[6] was a soldier of the Revolution part of four years, as I have many times heard him say, but no longer than eight months under one enlistment. He first went at the age of sixteen as a substitute for his father (who was drafted), and helped to build Fort Griswold, which is near the mouth of the River Thames, and opposite New London, Ct. He afterward enlisted, and went to West Point and served four months. Before leaving, his mother sewed two guineas into his vest pocket, as a provision against any need that might overtake him. I cannot give the date or duration of his other terms of service; but he was one of the detachment of troops that escorted the specie borrowed from France and Holland, from Springfield Hill to Philadelphia. There were said to have been twelve tons of silver and two of gold. He was also one of the guard on the occasion of Major Andre's execution at Tappan, N. Y. He was in no general engagement, but in several skirmishes. He was a pilot on the Connecticut River."
